

Course Information

Course title:	ECEN 616: Power System Electromagnetic Transients
Meeting time:	Fall 2022, MWF 12:40-1:30 pm
Meeting location:	ETB 1003
Course website:	https://birchfield.engr.tamu.edu/616F22/
Prerequisites:	ECEN 459 and ECEN 460
Course textbooks:	Allan Greenwood, Electrical Transients in Power Systems Herman W. Dommel, EMTP Theory Book
Catalog description:	Modeling of power system components for electromagnetic transient studies; digital computer methods for computation of transients.
Syllabus version:	8/22/2022
Instructor:	Prof. Adam Birchfield, abirchfield@tamu.edu
Office hours:	Mondays 1:30 – 4:00 pm, WEB 215-E

Course Topics

- I. Electromagnetic Transients Theory
  - A. Principles of transient analysis
  - B. Analytical methods for solving transient problems
  - C. Numerical methods for solving transient problems
  - D. Block element models
  - E. Transmission line models
    1. Single-phase overhead
    2. Multi-phase overhead
    3. Underground
    4. Frequency-dependence
  - F. Transformer models
- II. Electromagnetic Transients Applications
  - A. Capacitor and reactor switching
  - B. Transmission line switching
  - C. Lightning studies and insulation coordination
  - D. Transients with power-electronic-based components
  - E. Electric field coupling

This class makes use of the Electromagnetic Transients Program—Revised Version (EMTP-RV). TAMU has obtained educational licenses for this software for university computers. You can access this software on the computers in the basement lab of Wisenbaker 061, or through the TAMU Engineering VDI, with instructions for installation given here:

Evaluation

- 20% Class participation: Attend class, do assigned reading, and contribute to class discussion. If you can't attend class, email me as soon as you know, excused or unexcused. Make at least 10 great contributions to class discussion through the semester, showing your understanding of the assigned reading and associated concepts.
- 40% Theory Exam: Written part tentatively Wednesday, October 19, oral part tentatively Friday, October 21. The theory exam is closed-book, closed-notes. You may use one hand-written notesheet (8.5" by 11", front and back) and standard calculators.
- 40% Projects: Written reports tentatively due Wednesday, November 16, oral reports tentatively Friday, November 18.

If your final average falls within the following ranges you are guaranteed to receive at least the letter grade indicated: A: 90-100; B: 80-89; C: 70-79; D: 60-69; F: 59 or lower.

University Policies

Attendance Policy

The university views class attendance and participation as an individual student responsibility. Students are expected to attend class and to complete all assignments.

Please refer to Student Rule 7 in its entirety for information about excused absences, including definitions, and related documentation and timelines.

Makeup Work Policy

Students will be excused from attending class on the day of a graded activity or when attendance contributes to a student's grade, for the reasons stated in Student Rule 7, or other reason deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Please refer to Student Rule 7 in its entirety for information about makeup work, including definitions, and related documentation and timelines.

Absences related to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 may necessitate a period of more than 30 days for make-up work, and the timeframe for make-up work should be agreed upon by the student and instructor" (Student Rule 7, Section 7.4.1).

"The instructor is under no obligation to provide an opportunity for the student to make up work missed because of an unexcused absence" (Student Rule 7, Section 7.4.2).

Students who request an excused absence are expected to uphold the Aggie Honor Code and Student Conduct Code. (See Student Rule 24.)

Academic Integrity Statement and Policy

“An Aggie does not lie, cheat or steal, or tolerate those who do.”

“Texas A&M University students are responsible for authenticating all work submitted to an instructor. If asked, students must be able to produce proof that the item submitted is indeed the work of that student. Students must keep appropriate records at all times. The inability to authenticate one’s work, should the instructor request it, may be sufficient grounds to initiate an academic misconduct case” (Section 20.1.2.3, Student Rule 20).

You can learn more about the Aggie Honor System Office Rules and Procedures, academic integrity, and your rights and responsibilities at aggiehonor.tamu.edu.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Policy

Texas A&M University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. If you experience barriers to your education due to a disability or think you may have a disability, please contact Disability Resources in the Student Services Building or at (979) 845-1637 or visit disability.tamu.edu. Disabilities may include, but are not limited to attentional, learning, mental health, sensory, physical, or chronic health conditions. All students are encouraged to discuss their disability related needs with Disability Resources and their instructors as soon as possible.

Title IX and Statement on Limits to Confidentiality

Texas A&M University is committed to fostering a learning environment that is safe and productive for all. University policies and federal and state laws prohibit gender-based discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

With the exception of some medical and mental health providers, all university employees (including full and part-time faculty, staff, paid graduate assistants, student workers, etc.) are Mandatory Reporters and must report to the Title IX Office if the employee experiences, observes, or becomes aware of an incident that meets the following conditions (see University Rule 08.01.01.M1):

- The incident is reasonably believed to be discrimination or harassment.
- The incident is alleged to have been committed by or against a person who, at the time of the incident, was (1) a student enrolled at the University or (2) an employee of the University.

Mandatory Reporters must file a report regardless of how the information comes to their attention – including but not limited to face-to-face conversations, a written class assignment or paper, class discussion, email, text, or social media post. Although Mandatory Reporters must file a report, in most instances, a person who is subjected to the alleged conduct will be able to control how the report is handled, including whether or not to pursue a formal investigation. The University’s goal is to make sure you are aware of the range of options available to you and to ensure access to the resources you need.

Students wishing to discuss concerns in a confidential setting are encouraged to make an appointment with Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS).

Students can learn more about filing a report, accessing supportive resources, and navigating the Title IX investigation and resolution process on the University’s Title IX webpage.

Statement on Mental Health and Wellness

Texas A&M University recognizes that mental health and wellness are critical factors that influence a student’s academic success and overall wellbeing. Students are encouraged to engage in healthy self-care by utilizing the resources and services available from Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS). Students who need someone to talk to can call the TAMU Helpline (979-845-2700) from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. weekdays and 24 hours on weekends. 24-hour emergency help is also available through the National Suicide Prevention Hotline (800-273-8255) or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.
